TRAGEDY – CROP & FOOD RESEARCH

It is with deep regret the NZPPS notes that on 6 June 2003, seven Crop & Food Research staff died in a tragic aircraft accident near Christchurch airport. Amongst those who lost their lives were Desma Hogg, Alistair Clough and Howard Bezar. These people were involved with the NZPPS in various capacities in recent years. The Society acknowledges the significant contributions they made and extends its sincere condolences to family and friends.